

Job description

Job title: Associate (m/f)

Department : Dispute Resolution and Employment

Jurisdiction: Luxembourg

At Ogier we thrive on supporting personal opportunity and progression is key to our culture. With a growing team of more than 1,000 people around the world, we're looking for an Associate who wants to join a firm with a commitment to our people, clients, innovation and doing things differently whilst operating best practice.

Key Responsibilities

Our Dispute Resolution service line represents one of the largest offshore teams and we provide advice on technical, strategic and procedural aspects across the spectrum of complex contentious commercial issues and disputes.

You will be working closely with clients on cross-border civil and commercial litigation, including complex commercial and corporate disputes and contentious insolvency as well as local and cross-border employment advice and litigation.

Further responsibilities include drafting settlement agreements from clients and attorneys, drafting legal documents (complaints, motions etc) and preparing legal documents for filing with courts or administrative agencies. You will also be expected to research laws, statutes and regulations prior to trials.

Skills, Knowledge and Expertise

If you are a talented lawyer with 1-5 years' experience from a top tier firm with international exposure, we want to hear from you. You will have completed a postgraduate law degree, ideally complemented with an additional degree gained abroad (LL.M or Business School degree).

We want someone who's admitted to the Bar in Luxembourg or another EU jurisdiction, or who has attended / eligible to attend the CCDL.

If you are a team player, able to prioritize and efficiently handle multiple tasks, autonomous, dynamic, flexible and proactive, please don't hesitate in applying for this position.
