

Stibbe is a full service business law firm with national and international clients. We offer legal services in different areas of law, combining specialism and pragmatism. We are an independent, leading Benelux law firm and have global exposure through our offices in Brussels, Luxembourg, Amsterdam and London.

Stibbe's Luxembourg office, located in the heart of the financial district, focuses on offering premium legal services in the fields of corporate law, banking and finance law, tax law, real estate and construction law, information technology, investment funds, and asset management. With around 60 people - lawyers and staff - we provide our clients with the highest quality service, comprising legal advice and representation. It is our mission to invest in and commit ourselves to the personal and professional development of our people, ensuring they are always on top of their game in their work and in their social and family lives.

As a member of our Banking & Finance team in Luxembourg, you will work in a wide range of cross-border finance transactions (including acquisition financing, asset financing, structured finance, and debt (re)structuring) and financial sector regulatory matters..

In order to support the growth of our practice and its team of lawyers, we are looking for a Junior Associate with passion to deliver top-notch work

Junior Associate Banking & Finance Luxembourg

Job description

As part of a young, dynamic and growing team, you will:

- work with many different people on diversified and high-level cases, banking and finance transactions and regulatory matters. You will handle these files and projects independently;
- assist different clients on large, national, and international projects with fellow associates and partners from our various practice areas within the Benelux offices;
- manage these transactions with the assistance of a more senior associate or partner, depending on experience.

The ideal candidate

You have a European law degree, ideally completed with a Master or a post-graduate degree from an EU university (LL.M.). Relevant legal experience of up to 3 years is welcome, preferably in a Luxembourg law firm. However, we will also consider applications from candidates fresh from university or in the process of either taking or completing the CCDL.

You are member of a European bar or envisage a European bar registration (preferably Luxembourg bar), and are fluent in French and English (both written and spoken). German would be a plus. You are focused on client relationship and high-quality advice, and have excellent interpersonal skills and team spirit.

Join us

We offer a competitive compensation related to your qualifications and experience, a pleasant working atmosphere among a young entrepreneurial and dynamic team in a very international environment (both on the Stibbe and the clients' side) and with a corporate culture combining a high- quality customer service with a real emphasis on people and teamwork.
