

Experienced Tax Advisor (minimum 6 years of experience)

TS&P is a boutique law firm providing bespoke high-quality corporate and tax advice, while always considering practical and commercial aspects. This tailor-made advice is achieved with the support of an experienced team whose members have been working together for over a decade, creating strong and enduring client relationships built on trust.

The team owes its long-lasting success and global market recognition to its unique common mind-set.

TS&P is seeking an Experienced Tax Advisor.

We offer:

- A dynamic, familiar & friendly working environment and team
- A competitive package taking into consideration your experience and skills

Responsibilities:

- Providing tax consulting and compliance services to corporate clients, operating in the alternative investments, financial services, commercial and real estate sector
- Client relationship and development of client relationship
- Coordination with corporate/legal department

Requirements:

- Highest working standards and good organisational skills
- Strong accounting background
- Ability to multitask, set priorities and to work within deadlines
- Ability to work autonomously as well as in team
- Team spirit, dynamism and good interpersonal skills
- Exceptional attention to detail and accuracy

Qualifications:

- Minimum 6 years of experience in tax in a Luxembourg tax advisory firm / law firm
- Fluent in both English and German or both English and French
- Any additional language or experience will be an asset

Please submit your application by email to: contact@tsp.law