KAUFHOLD & REVEILLAUD, Avocats is a reputable independent law firm that provides a large range of legal services, both transactional and advisory, to multinational corporations, private equity firms, international and domestic banks and financial institutions, as well as investment funds.

We are currently looking for a junior lawyer/jurist for our Corporate and M&A department (un avocat junior/jurist pour notre département Droit des Sociétés et Fusions & Acquisitions).

Your Mission:

- Providing comprehensive support to the corporate team across all aspects of transactions, including mergers & acquisitions (M&A), restructurings, and other corporate matters.
- Drafting, reviewing, and negotiating key legal documents, such as due diligence reports, shareholder agreements, share purchase agreements, and general corporate governance documentation.
- Actively participating in client meetings and conference calls, offering legal insights and assisting with transaction execution.
- Conducting in-depth legal research on local and cross-border regulations to ensure compliance and provide strategic legal advice.

Your Profile:

- Qualified to the Luxembourg bar or another European bar;
- 0-2 PQE as a corporate lawyer would be an advantage;
- Have excellent drafting and communication skills;
- Excellent command in English and French or German (the knowledge of Luxembourgish would be considered as an advantage);
- Have exceptional organizational skills and the ability to adapt easily;
- Committed, serious, dynamic and good team player.
